

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Rockville

Mrs. Elizabeth Falvy, of New Orleans is visiting her father, the Hon. Spencer C. Jones, at this place. She will be here Miss Estie Bouic, who has been visiting relatives and friends here during the past ten days, has returned to her home in Chesapeake City, Md.

The marriage of Miss Dorsie R. Gilliss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gilliss, of this place, to Herbert L. Richardson, of Carroll county, Md., will take place at Rockville Baptist Church on the evening of July 25.

A house party has been in progress this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Welsh, of this place. The guests are Misses Laura Higgins, Anna Belle Allnutt and Mildred Higgins, of Rockville; Miss Elizabeth Rhodes, of Baltimore; Misses Eleanor Magruder and Mamie Pierce, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Lucille Welsh, of Olney, and Miss Estelle Waters, of Gaithersburg. Last Great Falls. Miss Mary Walsh, assist-ed by her mother, is entertaining the Reagan, members of the Catholic

Quiet Wedding Ceremony.

Clarence B. Reed and Miss Rose E. Murphy, both of Washington, came to this place last Monday and were quietly married by the Rev. S. R. White, the ceremony taking place at the home of

W. T. Place and Miss Ada W. Carr. both of Washington, were married here during this past week. The ceremony took place on Monday last, the Rev. S. R. White officiating.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Estelle Hall, daughter of Mrs. Rebecca Hall, of Poolesville, to the Rev. Richard S. Owens, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Utica, N. Y.
'The lawn festival of St. Mary's

Church, Rockville, will not be repeated this year, as previously announced.

the eastern section of this town. Mrs. Lavinia Waters, widow of Md. county, died at her home last Sunday night, aged sixty-five years. Mrs. Waters has many relatives in this county and Friday. There will be related to the Methodist Episcopal Church will give a lawn party in Randle Park next Thursday and Friday. There will be by one daughter. The Rev. T. H. Campbell, pastor of the Baptist Church at this place, with his tamily, is now on his vacation of one He left Baltimore recently for Richmond, where he will visit his mother and other relatives.

115 115 Child Burned to Death.

The eleven-year-old daughter of Benjamin Smith, of Browningsville, this county, was burned to death last Saturday. She attempted to kindle a fire with coal oil. It spilled on her dress, which became ignited as the blaze blew up from schools have been announced: Effie G. Barnesley appointed teacher at Avery, and recuperation. vice Edith Byrne, resigned; Edith Byrne at Berne, vice E. V. Waters, resigned; J. Henry Waters at Belair's, vice E. G. Rarnesley, resigned; resignation of Cora Saunders at Dawsonville accepted.

John T. Heffner, a prominent citizen, who lived near Dickerson, this county, St. Peter's Church, Second and C streets He had been ill for nearly five years. He is survived by his wife and five children— The couple are now residing at the residied last week, aged sixty-seven years. Mrs. John Jones, Misses Stella, Mary, and Clara Heffner, and E. H. Heffner. The remains were interred in Monocacy Cemetery, Beallsville. The Rev. S. R. White officiated.

was burned at 2 o'clock. Inst Toesday morning. Maurice Browning, the propertient, operated the plant until 11 o'clock Monday night, when he shut down and went to his home. Shortly afterward the mill was discovered to be on fire. Nothing was saved from the building and the loss will probably exceed $5,000, with partial first from the mill as the second time in a few years; that the mill has been destroyed by first t

Hickman returned to the present week with his string of running horses, including Sentry, Sky Runner, and Desio, from a limited campaign in templating a trip to Edinburg, Va. Virginia, in which he made seven starts them. Last week, at Fredericksburg, ing his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. David N. Sentry won two races in which he Fadeley, and friends in the Shenandoah started, and Sky Runner secured second valley, position in another race. Mr. Hickman street, brother-in-law of Mr. Glick, will will continue to train several of his accompany him.

Eckington

their youngest child, James, have re- afternoon about 1 o'clock who had s of First street, this place.

Mrs. Elizabeth F. Stewart, who was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Robert Standing, last week, and who had been cousin, Miss Mabel Sutherland, who is the hostess of a house party at Glen Allen, Va. Miss Ethel Dodge and her Clara Dodge, will accompany her as far nonor of his twenty-first birthday. Those present were Lawrence Keefe, Ednund Keefe, Ralph R. Gorman, Ernest Farmer, Raymond Fitch, Kelth Cook, Paul Sprees, and Whitney Scott.

Fla., has returned to her home in New dition is nearing completion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lloyd, who have been in the Philippines for some time, where the former had business interests returned to their home, on Third stree

Congressleights

The funeral of the late James F Branson, retired member of the Met-ropolitan police force, was held Monday morning at 9 o'clock, at St. Terea's Church, Anacostia.

High requiem mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Martin P. Egan, a choir of male voices chanted the service. Many floral offerings were placed upon the casket. The pall-bearers were A. W. Green, J. W. Mc-Cormick and T. A. Lusby, members of the Metropolitan police force, and John Madigan, Bryan Downey, and John F. Reagan, members of the Catholic Knights of America. Interment was made in Mt. Olivet Cemetery. The deceased is survived by his wife than Wednesday the party took a trip to the the Metropolitan police force, and John

Miss Lillie Gude has friends visit- is about to leave the city for East Liv ing her from New York. The Citizens' Association held its last meeting for the summer at its hall on Hamilton road. Matters of importance were brought up and discussed, during which a motion was passed requesting the secretary to request the Engineer Department to fill in the thoroughfare on the south side of Nichols avenue, hetween Fourth and Fifth streets. The Tuesday in October.

烂 烂 Gone to England.

Robert Cook, of St. Catherines, Belle view, has gone to London, England, Everett M. Ricketts has purchased at Where he will remain 101 sold the Everett M. Ricketts has purchased at Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Langley and famprivate sale from H. Maurice Talbott, a like the like the last Tuesday to spend the last Tuesday to spend the like the last Tuesday to spend the like the last Tuesday to spend the last Tuesday the last Tuesday to spend the last Tuesday to spend the last Tuesday the last Tuesday to spend the last Tuesday the remainder of the summer on their farm on the Patuxent river, near Nottingham,

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methand in Washington city. She is survived and Friday. There will be music and refreshments.

The stork made a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Owens, of Parke street, last Wednesday afternoon and left a baby boy. Both mother and son are doing well.

The condition of R. Waltermyer, of Brothers Place, Randle Park, who has been ill for some time, remains about

The Rev. W. L. Orem and family, who have been visiting John Simpson, of Forest Glen, Md., have returned home after an enjoyable trip, Roy Kirsch, of Washington, has bevisiting at the home of his relatives he stove.

The following changes in the public street. Mr. Kirsch has been ill for some ### 111 111 A Quiet Wedding.

Miss Erva Murray and Albert Harseman were married last Wednesday southeast. Owing to the illness of the The couple are now residing at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Seegars, of Brothers Place, Randle Park.

Raymond Fillus and Leo Green re turned Friday evening from an extended trip in Maryland. They left Tuesday morning and visited at Baltimore, tak-

To Take a Vacation.

with the three horses and won five of and will spend a week or ten days visit-William R. Woods, of Parke

> Work is rapidly progressing toward the completion of the range for the National Capital Rifle and Revolver Association in Randle Park in the large tavine down in the woods. Everything will be in readiness for the members to begin practice now in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Farrar, who spent last week at Atiantic City with terminus of the car line last Thursday turned to the city.

Miss Goldie Struffman, who has been visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. Royce Earl, has left for her home in Cumberland, Md. Miss Struffman will stop in Baltimore for a few days as the guest of Miss Edith Seufferlee.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knight Simms left on the 20th linst, for Sulphiur Springs on their vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Simms left day which lasted near two and a half

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knight Simms left on the 20th Inst. for Sulphur Springs on their vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Simms were to have gone last week, but were delayed on account of the illness of Mr. Simms' brother, Nelson Simms.

Fenton Armstrong, of U street, returned last night from Indianapolis, where he had been the guest of his brother, D. B. Armstrong.

Miss Sophia Weiss, of Newport News, Va., has returned to her home. Miss Welss had been the guest of Mrs. Speers, of First street, this place.

Mrs. Elizabeth F. Stewart, who was spring on the diamond of St. Elizabeth last manual plane, the Old Bucks played a game of six innings with a picked nine and defeated the latter by a score of 10 to 3. The Sunday school of the Methodist Episcopal Church gave their annual plane. Mrs. Elizabeth F. Stewart, who was spring to the new houses now nearing completion was played a game of the old Bucks team was to have now the diamond of St. Elizabeth last Monday evening at 5 o'clock. As the latter team did not put in an appearance, the Old Bucks played a game of six innings with a picked nine and defeated the latter by a score of 10 to 3. The Sunday school of the Methodist Episcopal Church gave their annual played a game of six innings with a picked nine and defeated the latter by a score of 10 to 3. The Sunday school of the Methodist Episcopal Church gave their annual played a game of six innings with a picked nine and defeated the latter by a score of 10 to 3. The Sunday school of the Methodist Episcopal Church gave their annual played a game of six innings with a picked nine and defeated the latter by a score of 10 to 3. The Sunday school of the Methodist Episcopal Church gave their annual played a game of six innings with a picked nine and defeated the latter by a score of 10 to 3. The Sunday school of the Methodist and the contract price for the new houses now nearing completion was $88,000.

Real Estate Notes.

The residence being erected for Cant

Brunswick.

Eugene Johnston, of North Capitol villa site overlooking the Potomac in the Butterfield addition, and plans are holms prepared for a handsome residence of two weeks. Mrs.

Gustave Sahelstrom has purchased a day morning.

Mrs. Lewis Truman returned to her the Butterfield addition, and plans are holms in the Park Friday evening, after an absence of two weeks. Mrs.

T. Oliver Probey, manager of the Probey Cariage Co., of Georgetown, has returned from a ten days5 Northern trip.

"And then Stayman turned to her the other side and passed out the other side and pas mother, the cousin and aunt of Miss Clara Dodge, will accompany her as far is Glen Allen, leaving her there to visit triends in Goldsboro, N. C.

Frank Gordan was the host at a substituting the contemplates of the cousin and aunt of Miss Clara Dodge, will accompany her as far lots in the F. R. Horner addition.

Thomas E. Griffith has purchased several lots in the F. R. Horner addition.

Thomas E. Griffith has purchased a guest for a few days.

Arthur Walker, who has been ill, is limited by the mother in the cousin and aunt of Miss claration.

Thomas E. Griffith has purchased several lots in the F. R. Horner addition.

Thomas E. Griffith has purchased a guest for a few days.

Arthur Walker, who has been ill, is limited by the mother in Toronto, where she was the latter's guest for a few days.

Arthur Walker, who has been ill, is limited by the mother in Toronto, where she was the latter's guest for a few days.

Northeast Washington.

Miss Estelle Healy, of Chester, Pa t visiting Miss Ruby Hall, at helper to the visit Miss Ruby Hall, at helper to the visit Miss Ruby Hall, at helper Miss Maggle Moore and her brother, Willis Moore, of 1210 H street, left town Wednesday for a two weeks' visit friends and relatives at Manassas,

J. McDonald, who resides welfth and H streets, returned last Monday from a short trip to the Ku cka lakes, in Canada. Miss Elise Hall, who has been visiting her brother, Luther Hall, corner of Twelfth and H streets, has returned to her home at Farmers' Fork, Richmond

Alexander Savoy, driver of engine company No. 10, returned from his an nual leave on Monday, and was fol-lewed by Private D. J. Bradley. Mr. Savoy spent a part of his vacation at White Sulphur Springs, and Mr. Brad-

Mrs. J. C. Kennedy, of 1233 H street, ermore, Me. She will be accompanied by her two young sons. Miss Lydia Gardner, of 1310 Florida venue, has gone to St. Mary county, Md., where she will spend the greater part of her thirty days' leave from the Government Printing Office. Rev. R. R. Riedel preached for the Central Union Mission at the open-air service on Sunday evening, and for the Salvation Army at the tent service on Monday evening. The funeral of Mrs. Eliza Robinson the aged mother of William S. Cham-pion, of 654 E street, was held Saturday morning, July 15, Rev. R. R. Riedel officiating. Interment was made in Glenwood Cemetery.

The Sunday school of Maryland Avenue Baptist Church held its anday. A large number of the members of the school and congregation particl pating in the outing.

Mrs. W. B. England and Mrs. R. W. Christian, of 820 Seventh street, have rone to southern Virginia for a few

Albert Benson, son of Dr. Benson, of 824 Fifth street, is visiting his par-Mr. Benson now resides in Phil-The Rev. Hez Swem, of the Second Baptist Church, and the Rev. A. K. Wright, of the Centennial Baptist urch, exchanged pulpits last Sun-

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Maryland Avenue Baptist Church are onducting a successful rummage sale ill be used to buy new heaters for Capt. John H. Richardson, who died on Monday at the home of his daugh-ter, and whose funeral services were neld on Wednesday at St. Dominic's Church, had many friends in Northeast Washington. He established the busiless at 1214 H street about two years ry, when it was turned over to one of sons. Captain Richardson was es teemed by all classes, and was an es pecial favorite with the children. The famuly of Dr. G. W. Boyd, of 121 Second street, is spending a part of the summer at Chesapeake Beach.

George C. Glick, jr., and little daughter, Grace, of Hamilton road, are contemplating a trip to Ediphyre Va.

ferred as private to No. 3 engine combanton, N. Y.

Father Thomas C. Harlin, pastor of Holy Trinity Catholic Church, corner templating a trip to Ediphyre Va.

Centenarian Baptist Church on the sub- town. ect: "The Promises of God."

er is building nineteen houses for William Lee. This is the site of the old Robert Mills property, the public house Kept by Jackson Cole for many years frontier on Structure and Falls being the summer at Falls been too long without treatment. He died on his second day in the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Matthews, of Thirtieth street, are residing in Univergent to Skipper Ellis, in a lucid interval that the water, making as much to wa fronting on Staunton place and being sity Park, Tenleytown, D. C. one of the chief landmarks of Northeast one of the chief landmarks of Northeast Mr. and Mrs. H. Warker Tucker Washington. The old house was erectled in 1846, and with some additions and improvements stood backed by an extension of Thirty-third and P streets away down yere. I never had no kind improvements stood backed by an extensive garden until last spring. property was sold to Mr. Lee for $40, 000, and the contract price for the new

Mrs. R. S. Savoy, of Manassas, Va. spending the winter at Palm Beach. John F. Watson in the Butterfield ad- has been visiting friends in Maple avenue. She returned to her home Satur being prepared for a handsome residence.

Charles W. Seegars has purchased two lots in the Butterfield addition, and will erect a Queen Anne cottage thera.

Nagara Falls. Toronto, and Thousand things. She was met by the present the property of the proper Niagara Falls, Toronto, and Thousand summer with her brother, Henry Cham-Islands. She was met by her mother in berlain, in Richmond, Va.

Maine as soon as his condition permits. He expects to start next Friday

Otts Bigelow, who lives a few miles east of Takoma, Md., while driving last Monday had a narrow escape from and Mechanics' National Bank, and Mrs. death. He was crossing the railroad Berry are at Atlantic City, N. J. death. tracks in his buggy, when his horse be came frightened and ran away. Bigelow jumped from the vehicle, receiving and Mrs. George Weaver are spending a few minor bruises. The horse was finally caught in Maryland, just across the District line. The buggy was badly smashed.

J. H. Allen, living on Oak avenue reports that his two brindle spotted beagle hounds were stolen from the yard in which they were quartered. The dogs were about seven months old and were very valuable. They had no

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Sumner left last Thursday evening, with their son Frank, for New York city, where they will remain for the week with a brother of Mr. Sumner. Miss Ivy Ruth Green is spending her vacation near Sparrow's Point, Md., at the country home of Mrs. Church. Mr. Dexter, of the Riggs National Bank, expects to leave about August :

Mrs. Burritt, of Newark N. J. is isiting her mother at the latter's home in Takoma, Md. Last week Mr. and Mrs. Farnham re turned to their home on Takoma avenue, after a short stay at Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Farnham spent the day before their return sightseeing in Philadelphia, where they were met by their son, who attends school there.

Last Wednesday evening, during the storm and for an hour afterward the residents of the park suffered much ininvenience from the tying up of th

The citizens living at Takoma much interested in the extension of the Capital Traction Company's Fourteenth street line, which is building in their direction and is expected to be com-pleted before December. While it is not thought that the line will reach al the way to Takoma, it is plain to see that indirectly the residents here be greatly benefited by this new rail way, since it will cause competition to spring up between the present system between here and the city, and the re sult of such competition will be better car service which the people have bee rightfully insisting on for a number o

Miss Edith Blumheimer, of Takoma Md., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Stien, of Bultimore, Md.

The death of Ruth Parker, the four-

Second Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Parker are overcome with grief at the loss of their little one.

Georgetown

Mrs. Thomas J. Keating and children pending the summer at Colonial Beach

Charles R. Murray, of 1711 Thirty-fifth street northwest, has returned from an extended trip through lower California and Mexico. He stopped at many of the large cities on his way home. Misses Stella and Agnes Dagenhardt, f Thity-second street northwest, have eturned from a visit to Miss Maud Don-hue, of Clarendon, Va.

Misses Mattie and Lillie Oetinger are t Atlantic City, N. J., where they will for two years before it was brought to remain several weeks.

remain several weeks.

Mrs. Martha A. Swindells, wife of this country.

Capt. John A. Swindells, will leave shortly for Hagerstown, Md., on a visit.

Weeks.

Mrs. Martha A. Swindells, will leave shortly for Hagerstown, Md., on a visit.

Mrs. John L. Phillips and family, of Street, and Mrs. Minnick are Private A. Minnick, who resides at 523

Fourth street, and Mrs. Minnick are Fourth street, and Mrs. Minnick are Bristol, Tenn., where they will spend the shipping business there, the parents of a boy, who made his apthe summer. Mr. Phillips, who is su-cently reduced from the rank of driver northwest, has returned from a three-months' visit to relatives in Bing-

Thirty-sixth and O streets northwest, him well in California. Father Hugh Milend is temporarily left last Monday for Woodstock College,

The Rev. A. K. Wright gave an inter- spend several weeks with Rev. Father primitive accommodations for patients esting talk to his congregation at the James F. X. Mulvaney, who was for used to civilized medical attention and Thursday evening prayer meeting in the merly paster of Trinity Church, George-nursing, Frank Stayman was taken

A great change has been effected on Mrs. Laura E. Sheridan the two-story Ellis stayed ashore to nurse his mate the point lying between C street and brick dwelling. 2023 P street northwest, in the hospital.

Maryland avenue, where Peter FersingMrs. James T. Clements and family "But it was n

Mr. and Mrs. H. Walker Tucker and Atlantic City. Mrs. Nellie Donahue, son and daugh- up home f'r burial, less'n the next where they spent a week. S. Duncan Bradley is spending his va- want you to bury me at sea. cation at Ocean City, Md. Miss Mamie Gibbons, of 1661 Thirtysecond street northwest, is visiting in

New York City. street northwest, left a few days ago o' his handy hammocks, and toss me for an extended trip through Northern over the side with the usual fortywood, proved a great success. The lawn about the home of Mrs. Austin was United States and Southern Canada. prettily decorated with Japanese lan- James Hardy, of 3416 P street northwest, is spending his vacation at the a hull heap better than layin' aroun' West Moreland, Colonial Beach, Va.

> Miss Louise Chamberlain, of 1809 Thir ty-fifth street northwest, is spending the Skipper Jim Ellis hadn't, even if he seconds. Of course, that record doesn't

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac E. Shoemaker and Georgetown, will leave on August 9 for pany, is spending his vacation at his Colonial Beach, where they will stay two old home in Fairfax, Va.

weeks. E. P. Berry, cashier of the Farmers

Mrs. Theodore Barnes and family, Wisconsin avenue northwest, and Mr. Beach, Va. Lester A. Hibbs, of 3420 N street northwest, has returned from New York city, where he has been for the past Dr. William D. Monroe, Mrs. Monoe, and children, will leave shortly for a northern trip, to stay until September Crandal Mackey has purchased the lot adjoining premises 3221 M street northwest, from H. B. Gilbert and R. H. Dar-by, executors of the estate of the late Maj. George Hill, jr., of Georgetown. Louis T. Clements has returned from

Atlantic City, N. J., where he spent a Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pearce, of 1422 Thirty-fifth street northwest, have returned from a trip to Niagara Falls. William H. Wilson and Joseph Stewart, of 3118 Dumbarton avenue northwill stop at New York, Philadelphia and

Brookland

Miss Nellie E. Middlehauff and her two brothers, Walter and Robert. Ninth and Lawrence streets, left last Friday for Atlantic City. Mrs. M. E. Mider, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. I. Lanigan, of Thirteenth and Evarts streets, has returned home. She was accompanied by Miss Dorothy Lanigan. Polkinhorn are sojourning with Mr. and who will take a long trip through the Mrs. Herbert Wright. West before returning. West before returning.

A severe electric storm visited Ken-Lieutenant Watt, of No. 17 engine com-sington last Wednesday. A thunderbolt, Fr.

堤煤

Jullien-Page. Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Mary Page to Philip Jullien, at St. Anthony's Church, August

Miss Mary Dowling, of Fourteenth and Monroe streets, is visiting her uncle, W. Fitzgerald, of New York city.

Mrs McDonald, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. L. Jackson, of 3806 Twelfth street, has returned to her home in New Brighton, Pa.

The lawn "arty held by the Church of Our Savior, on the lawn of Mr. Carmick, 1235 Newton street, last Tuesday and Wednesday, was successful socially and mancially.

financially.

姓 姓 Outings to Brookland.

The nurses from Rust Hall, North Canitel and M streets, have been bringing Mrs. Lewis is still away, although Miss the sick children to Brookland in the Darby is now improving. evenings in order that they may enjoy the cool breezes.

A number of friends of Capt. Joseph Banmer spent an enjoyable evening last Wednesday at a crab feast, which was held at his residence, 1236 Otis street. The house and lawn were decorated with flowers, and Japanese lanterns, A number of songs, recitations and speeches made by those present added greatly to the pleasure of the evening.

Mr. Grim, captain of No. 17 engine company, has taken steps to secure a bridge across the Baltimore and Ohio rallway at Monroe street. This bridge is of importance, because in the case of a fire in the western portion of Brockland it would save a great deal of time. At present the only way of getting there is by way of Michigan avenue.

Kensington

Mr. and Mrs. Afleck, Mrs. and Miss

. Armstrong, damaging one chimney. Miss Pauline Worch is spending a few days in Kensington.

The "Alpha Mus" treated themselves and a few invited guests to a straw-ride last Monday evening. The young folk went to Burnt Mills, where they had a feast of watermelons, returning home in the "wee sma' hours." Mr. and Mrs. George H. Snyder chaperoned the party. A game between the Kensington baseball team and one from Laurel, Md., played last Saturday, on the Kensing-ton diamond, resulted in a victory for the Kensington boys, the score being

Mr and Mrs. George W. Ashorth returned Tuesday after a stay of several weeks in Bristol, Conn. Mrs. William L. Lewis was called to Darnestown last week on account of the erious illness of her sister, Miss Darby.

The Rev. James T. Marshall left Kensington on Thursday for a short vaca-tion before taking up his new charge in Oak Park. He will spend some time at Saratoga, going from there to Bela week or two in Philadelphia before

Mr and Mrs. J. Harry Cunningham Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Cunningham and their son, Maxson, have returned from a trip to Niagara Falls, Toronto, New York, and Philadelphia.

Mrs. E. J. Hartshorn entertained a number of the members of the Woman's Club on Friday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. James T. Marshall.

Miss Clara Harrison, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas, at Warner street and Connecticut avenue.

Thomas, at Warner street and Condected avenue.

Miss Von Hurlinger is visiting Miss Nannette Milliken on Warner street.

Colonel Brady has just returned from a trip to Buffalo and neighboring points. He attended the convention of Elks, recently held in Buffalo.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lenett and family are at Ocean Grove, N. J., where they will remain for another week.

Miss Hazel Dean is visiting Miss Helen Fenton in Freeman place.

How Jim Ellis Stood Off Greasers

Philadelphia man who died in the province of Sonora while on a pleasure trip through Old Mexico," said a Californian who was engaged in business in various parts of Mexico for many years. "The dead man's Philadelphia relatives, not being familiar with Mexican law, wired alent down there of our potter's field—

Ber expostulated calmity, but ineffectually per, after placing the mate's body in front on the saddle, climbed on board the mule.

Ber expostulated calmity, but ineffectually per, after placing the mate's body in front on the saddle, climbed on board the mule.

Ber expostulated calmity, but ineffectually per, after placing the mate's body in front on the saddle, climbed on board the mule.

Ber expostulated calmity, but ineffectually per, after placing the mate's body in front on the saddle, climbed on board the mule.

Ber expostulated calmity, but ineffectually per, after placing the mate's body in front on the saddle, climbed on board the mule.

Ber expostulated calmity, but ineffectually per, after placing the mate's body in front on the saddle, climbed on board the mule.

Ber expostulated calmity, but ineffectually per, after placing the mate's body in front on the saddle, climbed on board the mule.

Ber expostulated calmity, but ineffectually per, after placing the mate's body in front on the saddle, climbed on board the mule.

Ber expostulated calmity, but ineffectually per, after placing the mate's body in front on the saddle, climbed on board the mule. being familiar with Mexican law, wired to the authorities of the town in which the young man died to embalm the body Mexican law had elapsed. and ship it to Philadelphia. They then found out all about the law, which recan consul. The consul could, of course, quires that the bodies of all foreigners do nothing, and told Ellis so, who die in Mexico shall be interred in "They're very finicky as Mexican soil for two years before ng removed to resting places in their wn land. "The dead man's Philadelphia relatives over the law.

"A few years ago, Frank Ives, the billiardist, died in Mexico, where he had gone in the hope of curing his lung in business in Mazatlan, and I'd have stances sim'lar. I'm a law-abidin' and have been by a man had. determination to hold the body in Mexican ground for a prescribed length of time, even invoking with powerful in-fluence behind them, the aid of our

Californian, who was as much at home on the back of a broncho as on the Father Thomas C. Harlin, paster of quarterdeck of a ship, and a square and lovable man all through. I had known

"The medical officer of the Mazatlan Father Hugh Milend is temporarily assisting Father Ignatius Fealy in charge of St. Joseph's parish in the absence of Father Schmitt on his vacation. Father Milend is from San Antoine, Tex.

Father Hugh Milend is temporarily left last Monday for Woodstock College, where he will spend several weeks in port took a look at the first mate and told the skipper that Stayman was in a bad way and should be taken to the west, left last Tuesday for Bel Alton, Charles county, Md., where he will Hospital, an adobe affair then, with from the schooner on the evening of presaged his early passing out;

Requested Sea Burial.

"'Jes' take me out on the schooner on your way up home and git old Coon- the swimming pool of the New York | The arm movement of the "crawl" is Louis Beauregard, of 1517 Thirty-third sey, the sailmaker, to sew me up in one pounder lashed to my ankles. I'll thank beat us four out of the six events, so you to 'tend to this, Jim, and it'll be I began to study up on the 'crawl,' I the full length, the arms are crooked yere in a burial plot filled with half-George Sellers, of Georgetown, has breed dead ones. The sea's good enough left for Colonial Beach, Va., to spend a f'r mine. That'll be about all—s'long, > didn't sav anything about it, not feeling stand, for the timekeepers were not of-like distressing his partner in his final ficial. Well, I taught some of the swimmoments. Eills wrapped his mate's body mers the 'crawi,' and we had something up in a winding sheet, and then he went up our sleeves when we met the Brook-

"I read a while ago about a young; schooner, in order to give it a seaman's was only half a square away. burial.

"The alcalde replied that such a thing would be out of the question. The skipnor expostulated cally bur jurgetties."

cade and half a dozen of those barefooted greaser policeman rushed over and surrounded Ellis just as the skip-

"They're very finicky and touchy about their laws down here, said the consult to the skipper. 'You'd better let the body stay down here for the two years.' "They're very finicky and touchy years.

堤 堤 Appealed to Captain. The Panama steamer Colima, bound up for San Francisco, entered the har-bor while we were talking, and Ellis in the saddle so as to keep the alcade boarded her and asked the captain if he and the bunch of cops covered with his would carry the dead mate's body up guns. They didn't take the chance of with the Mexican authorities, and regardful of what his company would traveled all over the place, and the four think of the thing, said no.

backed toward the door. "'Den't you hoptoads come a-nigh the body was brought on board the 'This yere's my friend that I'm on her way out to sea.

friend dead as he was alive.' "The gun awed the doctor and the Mexico complained to our State Depart-nurses, but they raced around the back ment about the incident, but the matter way to inform the alcada, whose office was allowed to drop."

"'Arrest him!' shouted the alcade. umping around, and the halfbreed cops pulled their dinky little swords and made as if to tackle Ellis. This time made as if to tackle Ellis.

"'And sidestep complyin' with the tone, but I aim ta-gom over the law.

"'And sidestep complyin' with the dyin' wish of my partner? Not any, replied Ellis, and then he came to see me. Interference whatever while I'm perplied Ellis, and then he came to see me. been chased into the sea by a mob had I shown any sort of disposition to meddle with the Mexican laws.

stances sim'lar. I'm a law-God-fearin' man wherever water or dry land. But the water for dry land. But this yere's a onusual case, and the first ombrey what tries t' hobble me is sure a-goin' to be et up a hull heap. G lang!"

"And he dug his heels into the mule's to San Francisco if he, Ellis, succeeded letting fly a shot at him, for they've in getting the body on board the Colima. The Colima's captain, fearing trouble marksmanship down in Mexico. "Meanwhile, the news of Ellis' act had

"'All right! Then it's plump up to me, reach the water front were lined with me,' quietly cautioned Ellis, as he back- schooner's mudhook was up and she was "The mate's body was given a proper seaman's burial on the following day.

sailing papers, and ten minutes after

A New Way to Swim

of the expert swimmer surging year before by seven seconds."

ough the water, making as much It will therefore be seen that the "But it was no use. The mate had through the water, making as much

But strength does not win alone. The through the water like motor boats. The "'Jim, I'm all in, and it's me to pipe style of stroke also has something to stroke, if waggling the feet and pawing of use for Greasers, and I wouldn't feel produce greater speed than any other named. Harry Krauss, of 3226 P street north- shipshape or prop'rly battened down has recently been introduced at the moved backward and forward upon the has returned from New York city layin in Mexican ground. Now, they New York Athletic Club by Gus Sund- ankles as hinges, the feet moving alstrom, the swimming expert. It is aptly or inaptly, according to one's point of view, called the "crawl." The stroke ap-Mrs. Nellie Donahue, son and daughter, and Miss Josephine Sullivan have returned from Niagara Falls, N. Y., which it probably won't. So, Jim, I parently originated in Australia. Its inmovements developed for the legs in troduction in New York, according to swimming were the froglike, spasmodic Mr. Sundstrom, came about in this legs lie stretched astern, with no move-

"We have every year in February in Athletic Club a match with the Brook- a modification of the well known "trudhne Club, of Boston. Last year they geon," or double overarm stroke. eculd make a second better time in "And then Stayman turned over on done before, I invited a number of peohe other side and passed out.

"Stayman had forgotten all about that time me and I did the distance in 113-5

N the opinion of many persons the match came off we won everything. In swimming race is to the strong.

As they watch the brown shoulders ord made by the Brookline team the > ternately and as fast as possible. In the arms, circular or continuous movement ment above the knee and little above stead, however, of throwing the arms forward out of the water alternately to practiced in the tank when no one was until they suggest the plucked wing of around, and when I was certain that I a chicken, and dipped smartly almost in front of the face. They are dipped as rapidly as the swimmer can bring them forward from the finish of the and without regard to the movement of "Stayman had forgotten all about that time me and I did the distance in 113-5 the feet. Other arm strokes can also two-year clause in the Mexican law, but seconds. The world's record is 121-5 he used with the "crawl" foot movement, Mr. Sundstrom has devised a combina-With the waggling feet he combines the "trudgeon" swimming on his back. He Arthur Walker, who has been ill, is improving in health, and expects to leave for one of the health camps in leave for one of the leave for one of the health camps in leave for one of the leave for one of the health camps in leave for one of the leave for one